PLEASE RETURN COMPLETED FORMS TO THE SECRETARY (Address on the front page)
Answers given in this form and the documents submitted will only be made available to the Council of Management.

Privacy Notice (Membership)

In signing the declaration above you are agreeing that the IDE will process your personal information to facilitate your membership of the Institute and to communicate with you in relation to matters which are essential to your continued membership. This may include (although will not be limited to):

- To confirm your identity when speaking with you about your membership or providing progression advice and professional development information;
- To process your initial membership and any upgrades or any changes to your membership thereafter;
- To process your annual membership subscriptions and any other payments that may be due from or to the Institute;
- To facilitate your participation in any IDE examinations, certifications or courses;
- To provide you with a copy of the Demolition Engineer magazine which is an automatic Member benefit;
- To provide information about any Council and Governance matters, including our AGMs, Elections and any changes to the Rules of the Institute;
- To process any complaints, grievances, disciplinarys or appeals relating to Membership;
- To facilitate your Membership of any Institute Boards, Committees or Groups;
- To provide you with relevant information concerning News and Events
- Any other matters which are essential to your Membership or the running of the Institute

We process this information pursuant to our membership agreement with you and in order to comply with our legal obligations governing Data Protection.

Your information will be stored securely on either the Institute’s systems and within IDE Headquarters. This storage will include the use of our Access Database, file stores, SAGE finance system and email accounts. We may also share your data with companies that help us to provide our services, including our IT service providers who store back up data, companies who assist with our marketing and companies who run our annual elections. We are satisfied that all our providers are complying with their data protection obligations.

We will retain your data for the duration of your membership and will retain a full record of your membership for 3 years thereafter to assist with membership status after your membership has ceased to be active. After 3 years the hard copy of your records will be destroyed.

Your rights

Where processing of your personal data is based on consent, you can withdraw that consent at any time by contacting us in writing at any time during the duration of your membership. You have the right to:

- ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. We will inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for such purposes or if we intend to disclose your information to any third party for such purposes;
- request from us access to personal information held about you;
- ask for the information we hold about you to be rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- ask for data to be erased provided that the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected;

Should you have any issues, concerns or problems in relation to your data, or wish to notify us of data which is inaccurate, please advise us by contacting us in writing at IDE, 1st Floor Eagle Court, 130 High Street, Rochester, Kent ME1 1JT. In the event that you are not satisfied with our processing of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority: Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) www.ico.org.uk in the UK, at any time.

For the purposes of data protection legislation, the data controller is The Institute of Demolition Engineers (IDE).
