Your Declaration

To the best of my knowledge and belief, the information I have provided is true. I confirm that I wish to apply for Full Membership of the Institute of Demolition Engineers. If elected I agree to abide by the Rules of the Institute and the Members Handbook. I understand that the IDE Membership Committee, on behalf of the IDE Council of Management, has discretion to refuse an upgrade to any applicant without giving reasons.

Please return your completed application and all supporting documentation to:

Applications Department, Institute of Demolition Engineers, Office 2 Innovation Studios Medway, 1044 Canal Road, Rochester, Kent ME2 4DT. Alternatively you can email the completed document in PDF format to Maureen@ide.org.uk

What Happens Next?

You will receive an acknowledgement that your application has been received. Providing that your application is complete in all respects the National Secretary will prepare it for the Membership Committee to review at their next available meeting. The Committee meet at approximately two-monthly intervals so there may be some delay before your application is considered.

The Membership Committee, on behalf of the Council of Management, reserve the right to decide whether or not an application is successful. The Committee are not obligated to provide reasons for their decision to decline an application or offer applicants a Professional Interview. The Membership Committee may request further information from you in support of your application. This must be received before a decision on your application will be reached. In most cases a Professional Interview will only be offered if the initial application and portfolio has been approved.

If the Membership Committee approve your application, you will be invited to the second stage of the process: a Professional Interview. The date, time and details of the interview will be advised within 14 days after the Membership Committee have carried out their review of your application. At this point you will be asked to elaborate on the information you have provided within the case study section of this application form.

Please advise the National Secretary of any dates that you are unavailable to attend an interview.

Data Protection

Privacy Notice

In signing the declaration you are agreeing that the IDE will process your personal information to facilitate your membership and to communicate with you in relation to matters which are essential to your application and continued membership. This may include (although will not be limited to):

- * To confirm your identity when speaking with you about your membership or providing progression advice, professional development information and details regarding membership of the IDE;
- * To process your initial application and any upgrades or any changes to your membership details thereafter;
- * To process any payments that may be due from or to the Institute;
- * To facilitate your participation in any examinations, certifications or courses;
- * To provide you with a copy of the Demolition Engineer magazine which is an automatic membership benefit;
- * To provide information about the Council and Governance matters, including our AGMs, Elections and any changes to the Rules of the Institute;
- * To process any complaints, grievances, disciplinaries or appeals relating to your membership;
- * To facilitate your Membership of any Institute Boards, Committees or Groups;
- * To provide you with relevant information concerning News and Events and any other matters which are essential to your membership or the running of the Institute.

We process this information pursuant to our membership agreement with you and in order to comply with our legal obligations governing Data Protection.

Your information will be stored securely on either the Institute's systems and within IDE Headquarters. This storage will include the use of our Access Database, file stores, SAGE finance system and email accounts. We may also share your data with companies that help us to provide our services, including our IT service providers who store back up data, companies who assist with our marketing and companies who administer our annual elections. We are satisfied that all our providers are complying with their data protection obligations.

We will retain your data for the duration of your membership and will retain a full record of your details for 3 years thereafter to assist with membership status after your membership has ceased to be active. After 3 years the hard copy of your records will be destroyed.

Your rights

Where processing of your personal data is based on consent, you can withdraw that consent at any time by contacting us in writing at any time during the duration of your membership. You have the right to:

- ask us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes. We will inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for such purposes or if we intend to disclose your information to any third party for such purposes;
- request from us access to personal information held about you;
- ask for the information we hold about you to be rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete;
- ask for data to be erased provided that the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected;

Should you have any issues, concerns or problems in relation to your data, or wish to notify us of data which is inaccurate, please advise us by contacting us in writing at IDE, 1st Floor Eagle Court, 130 High Street, Rochester, Kent ME1 1JT. In the event that you are not satisfied with our processing of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority: Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) www.ico.org.uk in the UK, at any time.

For the purposes of data protection legislation, the data controller is The Institute of Demolition Engineers (IDE).
